

SABOPR005EN0518

SABO S.p.A. completes acquisition of Domus Personal Care

Bergamo, Italy – 8 May, 2018 – SABO S.p.A. is very pleased to announce the acquisition of the Personal Care Business Unit of Domus Chemicals S.p.A. and the brand “DOMUSCARE”, high quality Specialty Esters and Emollients. This acquisition will reinforce the Personal Care position of SABO in the Cosmetics market and allows both parties to leverage their strengths and innovative capabilities in the development, manufacturing and distribution of new sustainable products based on existing technologies and to build a long term collaboration in other fields for the future.

About SABO S.p.A.

SABO S.p.A. is a world leader in the development and manufacturing of specialty chemicals and ingredients used in a wide range of markets, including functional and active ingredients for Personal Care, additives for plastics & coatings, and specialty chemicals for industrial applications.

As a privately held company with over 81 years of experience in chemical manufacturing, SABO's strengths include a high level of flexibility, strong chemical process expertise, and a proven ability to provide products meeting customer requirements for quality and performance.

For more information, please visit: www.sabo.com.

About Domus Chemicals S.p.A.

Domus Chemicals S.p.A. is born as a company producing soaps and detergents, in its more than 60 years of business vastly extends its skills, to become a company capable of producing highly specialized chemicals in different fields of use. Thanks to continuous investments with the headquarters located at Pedrengo, close to Bergamo, Domus combines technologically sophisticated systems and machinery in the field of Cosmetics, Additives for Plastics, Lubricants and Synthetic Esters for industrial application.

This press release can be downloaded from www.PressReleaseFinder.com.